When I was a child, I loved spending hours reading books. I borrowed them from the library or received them as gifts, but nothing felt as exciting as getting a brand-new book. There was something special about being the first person to get through its pages. However, I didn't start reading it at once. Instead, I liked to take my time, looking at the cover and pictures.

Once I started reading, I couldn't stop. My love for books grew so much that it became an expensive habit and so, my parents encouraged me to borrow library books.

One day, while reading a library book, I found two hundred pounds hidden inside. Without a second thought, I returned the book and the money to the librarian and forgot about it.

A month later, the librarian called me with news. He couldn't find the owner of the money, so he decided to give it to me. I'm sure you know how I spent this unexpected gift.
